Please join the Peabody Coalition of Black Graduates in welcoming three of our own esteemed faculty to speak on the current state of research concerning the experience and place that the Black and African-American identities play in education and human development. This important topic is especially salient in light of recent events both at Peabody and nationally. For more information, feel free to contact Richard Blissett at richard.s.blissett@vanderbilt.edu.
